President Schechter's Perspectives

Dear Chevrei,

It was very sad to lose our longtime member, Vickie Hugo, in October. She was a former Principal of our Religious School. Mark, Vickie and their sons Victor, Ken, and James spent many hours in our school and participated in numerous services. Mark is planning a move to Kansas City with Ken, Ken's wife Bailey and their son Sky. Victor married his girlfriend Summer on the night of Vickie's passing in a ceremony officiated by Rabbi Klein. Stacy Davis and Kathleen Arnold-Chambers were in attendance.

The Re-opening task force met with Religious Practices and the Board in October and they collectively have agreed to begin hybrid services as of Friday, November 5th at 7 pm; you can choose whether to participate virtually or in person!

Everyone must be fully vaccinated and wear masks at all times while indoors at Temple Beth El. If you wish to attend services, please bring your Proof of your Vaccination shots or email an image of it to Rabbi Klein; we will develop an ongoing list to simplify our admission process. Please sit with your family unit or with those you came to services. Every other row will be roped off. The main entrance will be the only door open, not the kitchen.

If you would like to assist with our virtual worship technologies, please contact Ilene Schechter to set the schedule. We will be keeping up with County and State guidelines as they are updated. Marc Schulman will be setting up the weekly honors.

Our foyer was partially filled with non-perishable food donated by Beckie Crumpler, teacher in our Bright Beginnings Daycare, on behalf of her Church, Grace Assembly of G-d. Thank you so much for the generous donation and your support of our daycare!

I would like to take this opportunity to wish a very Happy Birthday to Temple Beth El! We will be 74 years old on November 4th! Yasher Koach to our founding families and to all families that have walked through our doors since opening! Yom Huledet Sameach!!

Yasher Koach to all the Congregants of Temple Beth El for all you do to keep us thriving!

"More than the Jewish people have kept Shabbat, Shabbat has kept the Jewish people!"

Temple Beth El where Judaism lives!

Shalom,

Ilene Schechter

The Children are Our Guarantors

Song of Songs Rabba 1:4: Rabbi Meir said, When Israel stood before Mt. Sinai to receive the Torah, The Holy One of Blessing said to them, "What? Am I supposed to give you the Torah without any security? Bring some good guarantors that you will keep it properly, and I will give it to you."

They said to [Gd]: "Our ancestors will be our guarantors."

Gd: "Your ancestors themselves need a guarantor! [snip]"

Avraham questioned Me: "How will I know?" (Genesis 15:8).

Yitzchak loved Esav although I hate him (Malachi 1:3).

Yaakov thought I mistreated him (see Isaiah 40:27)."

They said to [Gd]: "Master of the Universe, Our prophets are our guarantors"

Gd: "I have [complaints] against [the Prophets], too:

"The shepherds sinned against Me" (Jeremiah 2:8).

"Israel, your prophets were like foxes..." (Ezekiel 13:4).

So bring Me good guarantors and I will give it to you."

They (i.e. the Jewish People) said: "Behold, our children are our guarantors."

Gd: "Now, THAT'S A GUARANTOR!"

'From the mouth of infants and babes You founded oz (strength)' (Psalms 8:3)

—THIS is Torah (ibid., 29:11). "

What happens if the borrower doesn't pay? The lender collects from the guarantor. "If you forget [My] Torah, I will 'forget' your children" (Hosea 4:6). Therefore a person has to bring his child into the Torah and educate him in it (Shir HaShirim Rabbah 1:4:1).

Indeed, the children ARE our guarantors. Building Jewish life in Kern County means bringing Torah to all of our children. This is no small task, but it is really the ultimate task of the Jewish people: To perpetuate our sacred and values-centered heritage to another generation of Jews, and to bring Judaism into the world, as an Or I'goyim, "a Light Unto the Nations" (Isa. 49:6).

In the end of October, I led the rituals surrounding the Brit Milah (ritual circumcision) and K'riat Shem (baby naming) for a fourth-generation Temple Beth El young man, Marcus Gale Magnus, the son of Elliott and Breeann Magnus, grandson of Steve and Gail Magnus, and great-grandson of Mel and Hulda Magnus. As is typical in Jewish practice, this young boy was given his great grandfather's name in Hebrew and will be called Moshe ben Eliyahu, Marcus son of Elliott. What a blessed event!

We at Temple Beth El—all of us—are the guarantors of a next generation of Torah learners and the future of our meaningful, values-laden tradition. Are we meeting that vision?

My sister Sylvia informed me of a congregation discarding hundreds of books; we went down there and picked them all up! In the next few weeks, I hope to deliver many of them to our Kern County children and to make arrangements to mail them to further away parties, as a present from Temple Beth El, with postage from my discretionary fund.

It is urgent that we perpetuate Torah, Judaism, our core values, our beautiful traditions...please join me in making this a possibility!

Have a Blessed November!

Rabbi Klein

p.s. Sadly, Tera and I have chosen to part ways. This has been a challenging time for me, but I know that both of us will continue to move forward in our lives. I ask that you respect both of our privacies over this. Judaism recognizes that marriages do not always work out (in fact there's an entire tractate of the Talmud associated with divorce), and of course it is very sad when this is the case. I certainly wish her all the best, as we both navigate the next steps in our personal journeys.

NEWS FROM 6TH GRADE

Alexander Anaya, Lucas Baron, Carter Friedman, Hunter Rittenberg, Isabel Theron

The 6th graders recently learned about the first woman prophet and judge, Deborah. We took a stab at writing our very own "Song of Deborah", just like the one in the Tanakh.

We Used the process of brainstorming the words and phrases that popped out at us from the various midrashim, as well as our own impressions of this pretty amazing woman. The students came to a consensus on the best tune to match our brainstorm, and then....we ran out of time!! So Laura and Jill took the brainstorm and shoehorned it into the tune. Here's the result.

DEBORAH'S SONG

By the 6th Graders
(Sung to the tune of Lo Yisa Goi)

CHORUS

Come light a fire says De-bor-ah
For courage, truth and for To-rah
When we serve justice - (we) light that flame
We sing this song now in her name

VERSE ONE

Prophet and Judge for all twelve clans
She was most trusted in all the lands
Shiloh was dark till she helped them see
(With the) candles she made so liber-al-ly

VERSE TWO

"Wise woman, wise woman", Barak cried,
"I'll only fight with you by my side!"
Ten thousand soldiers did they lead
(And) as she predicted, they did succeed

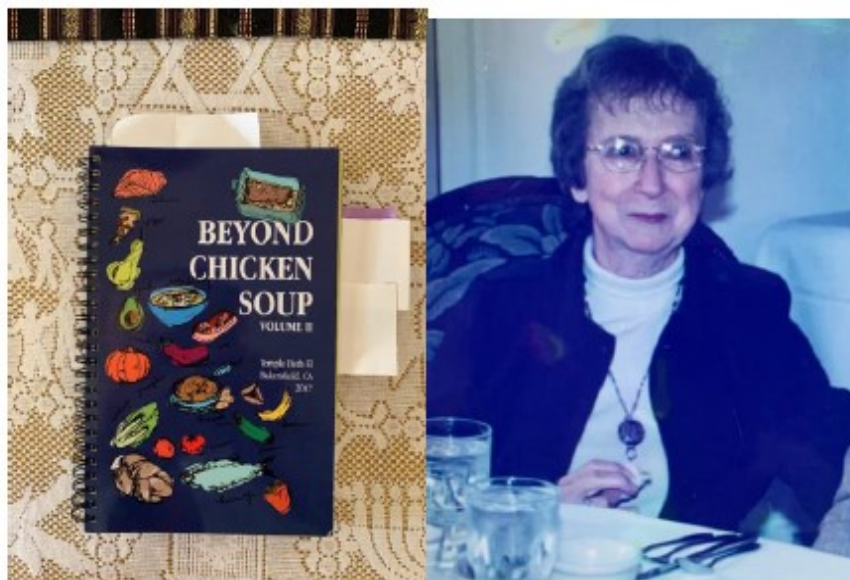

VERSE THREE

God calls us all in dif-ferent ways
(At) dif-fer-ent days
De-bor-ah served her com-mun-i-ty
(Sitting) under her tree (dis)pensing pro-phe-cy

WOMEN OF TEMPLE BETH EL/SISTERHOOD Presents

COOKING CLASSES via ZOOM

Featuring Cooking From:

A once a month cooking class at 1 pm on a Sunday through a Zoom meeting room, featuring Legacy recipes from the cookbook BEYOND CHICKEN SOUP VOL II, and an additional recipe of the cook's choice. The cookbook is on sale in the Temple Beth El Gift Shop if you don't have one already.

November 7, 2021: This month's class will be done in Honor of my Mother-In-Law, Arline Pike z"l. Her birthday was November 6, so perfect time to learn from her. This is the time of the year when we can really appreciate Arline Pike's Vegetarian Matzah Ball soup (p. 179). This was Arline's go-to family recipe. Whenever we gathered for holidays, be it Thanksgiving, Chanukah or Pesach, Arline brought this soup. For an added bonus, we are going to make Meringue Surprises (page 118 of Beyond Chicken Soup, Volume I) which were her reliable-for- oneg cookie, according to her family. Don't worry if you don't have Volume I, we'll send you this recipe.

TO PARTICIPATE: Send us an RSVP via email to: wotbesisterhood@gmail.com by November 7 at noon. We will send you a Zoom link and the ingredient list (if you want to cook along with the cook.) Questions? wotbesisterhood@gmail.com

We are still reading Bread & Fire: Jewish Women Find God in the Everyday edited by Rivkah Slonim. This nonfiction anthology of stories is divided into three sections: Self, Home and Family, Community and Beyond. We will continue reading Bread & Fire and focus on the third section, Community and Beyond, for our next Book Club meeting. So, if you have the book and didn't finish it or would like to order the book, you are not too late; click on the linked title above to see a summary, reviews, and additional links to purchase through Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and Indiebound. This title can also be purchased at Thrift Books We will continue our focus on Bread & Fire throughout this year and meet twice more to discuss each section. A suggestion for reading this title is to read one essay a day, as there are about 20 essays per section. The essays certainly encourage contemplation and introspection as we draw connections to these Jewish women who span a wide range of ages, backgrounds, perspectives, and professions. This title definitely sparked very interesting conversations and stories from our book club members. We look forward to continued exploration of contemporary Jewish women's spirituality in the normal pleasures and problems of a woman's world. We will meet to discuss this book on Sunday, December 12th at 1pm on the TBE Zoom.

The next read will be The Matzah Ball by Jean Meltzer, which was just released last month. This fiction romantic comedy is very timely with the upcoming season approaching. In this novel, chronically-ill Rachel Rubenstein-Gold-Blatt is a “nice Jewish girl,” with a secret: she loves Christmas. As the best-selling author of over twenty Christmas romance novels, and four made-for-TV movie spin-offs, she’s kept her stellar career secret from her observant Jewish family for over a decade. But when Rachel’s publishing house tells her they won’t renew her contract unless she writes them a Hanukkah romance, she’s desperate for inspiration. She finds it in the form of the Matzah Ball, a high-end Jewish music celebration scheduled for the last night of Hanukkah. There is only one problem: tickets are sold out and the only way to get one is direct from the ball’s creator, who just happens to be Jacob Greenberg, her summer camp arch enemy. To purchase this book, visit the Jewish Book Council JBC website and click “Buy” to access retailers who benefit JBC. We will meet to discuss this book in January, specific date TBD.
